CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY OF AIR MAIL BEGINNING

Post Office Officials Hold Second Annual Ceremonies at Col-

The second annual celebration of the nauguration of the air mail service by the Post Office Department was held today at the College Park, Md., flying field, with officials of the Post Office field, with officials of the Post Office Department in attendance.

Maj. L. B. Lent, general superintend-ent of air mail, and J. Clark Edgerton, chief of flying operations, "took off" in two of the original six planes used two years ago.
Pilot Edgerton flew in the same plane

he used flying from New York to Washington on the first trip ever made with mail. It was recalled that the President witnessed the first air mail flight two years ago.

Regular air mail service between Chicago and Omaha is to be inaugurated today. Planes are to fiy straight through the route, with an emergency landing field available at Iowa City. This is another step in the New York-Frisco air mail route to be inaugurated

DAVID KESSLER.

NEW YORK, May 15.—David Kessler, a pioneer of the Yiddish stage in America, and one of its foremost actors, died in a hospital here yesterday after an operation for intestinal trouble. He was born in Kishinev. Russia, sixty years ago and came to the United States in 1886. Kessler was taken ill at a rehearsal last Wednesday of the Yiddish version of "Kreutser Sonata," but he returned to the theater for the evening performance, during which he lost his speech and collapsed.

PROPOSES TO REGULATE AIR TRANSPORTATION

Regulation of air navigation in this country by a commission composed of representatives of various government departments is proposed in a bill introduced in the House yesterday by Chairman Kahn of the military af-fairs committee at the request of Secretary Baker.

The Secretary said his request was made at the direction of President Wilson. The bill is designed, Mr. Baker said, to obtain uniform regula-ers, which might be held only by American citizens or American-owned corporations. Failure to comply with the regulations would be subject to fine and imprisonment. Regulations of the commission, however, would not become overstive until approved. not become operative until approved by the Secretary of Commerce. The personnel of the commission would be limited to one representative from the departments of State. Treasury, Commerce. War, Post Office, Navy, Agriculture and the national advisory committee for aeronautics. Selection would be made by the President.

HOUSE APPROVES REPORT

ON ARMY-NAVY PAY BILL The House approved the conference report on the Army and Navy pay bill esterday, and it now goes to the Senate. The increase would amount to a total of $60,000,000 a year and the increases are retroactive to January I and to continue until June 30, 1922. In the meantime an investigation i to be made looking to permanent readjustment of the service pay.

DEPLORES U. S. "BUTTING IN. Frederic William Wile Says Irish

Question Is Britain's Affair. British-American relations are not in a happy state and the Irish question is an internal British question which "is none of our business," declared Frederic William Wile, newsclared Frederic William Wile, newspaperman, in an address at the Rotary Club weekly luncheon at the Willard yesterday.

"I am pro-Irish," Mr. Wile said. "I believe the Irish are entitled to a square deal from England. I believe that the English have been proverbially slow-witted in granting it.

"But I also believe that it is none of our business to take part in the squabble. It is an internal affair of the British empire. We would resent British interference in our internal affairs. The British, I think, are on the verge of settling the Irish problem. But the settlement will not be hastened by any 'butting in' on our part."

BUTLER. Sacred to the memory of our dear niece, BESSIE BUTLER, who departed this life two years ago today, May 15, 1918.

COLEMAN. A tribute of love and devotion to the memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, FRANK COLEMAN, who de-parted this life seventeen years ago today, May 15, 1903.

He was the one with the soul divine.
Whose heart was constant and true:
One who was the same at all times.
Dear-st husband and father, that was you:
HIS DEVOTED WIFE MATILDA AND DAUGHTERS. MARY GIBSON AND NELLIE HOLMES.

HIS DEVOTED WIFE, ANNIE FOX JACK-

It was an early morning hour, One year ago today: An angel of death came down to earth And bore Irving's soul away.

We tried so hard to keep him with us,
But God willed that he ishould go;
So we yielded to the parting.
Though it filled our hearts with woe.
HIS DEVOTED MOTHER, FLORENCE
JOHNSON, AND FAITHFUL BROTHER
RAYMOND, JERSEY CITY, N. J.

He is walting by the river,
Just across the silent stream,
Where sweet flowers are ever blooming
And the banks are ever green,
LOVING AND ONLY SISTER, MRS. BEATRICE BROWN.

BREWER. In loving memory of our dear little The bud that was brightest and fairest.
Is the bud that was nipped by the frest.
For the darling baby we cherished
Is the little one we have lost.
PAPA AND MAMMA.

Often I think of you, dear Bessie, When my heart is sad with pain; Oh, this earth would be a heaven Could I but hear your sweet voice again.

Dearest Ressie, how I loved you.
In words I cannot tell,
But engraved deep within my heart
Your image shall always dwell.
BY HER LOVING AUNT AND UNCLE.

JOHNSON. Sacred to the memory of our dear son and brother. IRVING P. JOHNSON, who departed this life in Jersey City, N. J., one year ago today, May 15, 1919.

At the bedside of our loved one, Night by night and day by day.

We watched his loving hands grow thinner, Saw him slowly pass away.

How sadly I have counted the hours That measured one sorrowful year. Since we laid beneath a mantle of flowers My brother, I loved so dear.
